

am 9:00 check-in + coffee

10:00 welcome

maggie newey
Associate Director for Academic Programs + Public Education, SCMA

10:15 panel 1 connecting with art in the museum
finding innovative ways to engage + inspire

anne manning '89
moderator
Director, Education + Interpretive Programs, The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art

kimberly drew '12
panelist
Social Media Manager, Metropolitan Museum of Art; Founder, Black Contemporary Art on Tumblr

sara bodinson '99
panelist
Director, Interpretation, Research + Digital Learning, Museum of Modern Art

11:15 break

“All museums have the opportunity to be hubs for connections between people, ideas, cultures, and even for someone to connect more fully with themselves, or who they aspire to be. What a privilege!”

—Ann E. Musser

11:30 panel 2 connecting with art in the community
activating culture for social change

denise a. gray '97
moderator
Manager of School and Alumni Programs, artworxLA

shereen choudhury '11
panelist
Co-founder, Creative Director, Green Seed Arts, CA

leila tamari '11
panelist
Program Assistant, ArtPlace America, NYC

pm 12:30 lunch campus center, 2nd floor

1:30 keynote followed by open conversation / Q+A

kemi ilesanmi AC '98
Executive Director, The Laundromat Project, NYC

2:45 closing

jessica nicoll '83
Director + Louise Ines Doyle '34 Chief Curator, SCMA

3:00 reception museum open until 5 pm SCMA atrium

Support for the Emily Hall Tremaine Symposium has been provided by the Emily Hall Tremaine Fund through the initiative of Dorothy Tremaine Hildt '49

Museum photography by Lynne Graves

SMITH COLLEGE
MUSEUM
OF ART
smith.edu/artmuseum