The labyrinth is an archetype found in many religions and in various forms around the world. It has only one path so there are no tricks to it and no dead ends. The path winds around and becomes a mirror for where we are in our lives.

Led by Dean Jennifer Walters