Screen Printing Workshop with Bekezela Mguni
Wednesday, April 27th
4:00—6:00 PM
Hillyer Atrium
Presented by Smith College PRISM, in collaboration with Smith’s Activist-in-Residence Bekezela Mguni and the Black Unicorn Project. Sponsored by the Sophia Smith Collection and the Steinem Initiative. Refreshments will be served.

Vigil for Ecuador
Wednesday, April 27th
12:00 PM
Helen Hills Hills Chapel Steps
Join us on Wednesday at noon for a vigil honoring those affected by the recent earthquake in Ecuador. It will be a chance to show solidarity and share resources with your classmates. A pizza lunch will be provided.

Soup, Salad and Soul
Fridays, 12:15-1:00 PM
Helen Hills Hills Chapel
Enjoy some homemade, vegan-friendly cooking and participate in a student-led discussion group. Each discussion focuses on a different topic, such as “What is a safe space?” All are welcome.

Interfaith Chapel Celebration
Wednesday, April 27th
7:15 PM
Bodman Lounge, Chapel
Come join the Center for Religious and Spiritual Life for an interfaith, end-of-the-season gathering. All student religious organizations are invited, and feel free to bring friends! There will be refreshments. To learn more, contact Rezwana Uddin at rauddin@smith.edu.

Black Unicorn Closing Event
Friday, April 29th
1:00—5:00 PM
Neilson Core
Celebrate the end of classes by attending the final event in Black Unicorn Pop-Up Week. Take a look at the art exhibit before it closes, and participate in an open mic. There will be a conversation salon exploring “Uses of the Erotic” by Audre Lorde, and poetry readings by members of PRISM and QUINTA.
