The Inauguration of Kathleen McCartney

11th President of Smith College

I am honored to share my inauguration with you.

At Smith, a presidential inauguration is a time to celebrate the college's great traditions, reaffirm our deep commitment to educating women for the world, and embrace our future.

This inauguration kit brings the celebration to you. Inside are some things that will help you get to know me, along with some ways you can participate in the festivities from your hometown.

In the months following my inauguration, I will be visiting alumnae in cities and towns around the world. I look forward to meeting you and hearing your Smith stories.
